CDFA Recognizes Amanda Frazier, DFCP

—Newest Graduate of the Prestigious Development Finance Certified Professional (DFCP) Program —

Columbus, OH — The Council of Development Finance Agencies (CDFA) is pleased to announce Amanda Frazier, Vice President, Controller for LDK Ventures, in Sacramento, CA, as the newest graduate of the prestigious Development Finance Certified Professional (DFCP) program. Ms. Frazier joins the ranks of fellow graduates who have invested in their professional development and are recognized as emerging leaders in the development finance industry.

“CDFA is always looking to engage the best and brightest in development finance with this program, and we are happy to welcome Amanda into the ranks of DFCP graduates,” states Toby Rittner, DFCP and President & CEO of CDFA. “Our hope is that through their participation in the DFCP program, graduates leave ready to employ development finance tools in the communities they work in.”

Amanda Frazier is a commercial real estate professional with experience in property management, financial analysis, and development finance. As the Vice President, Controller for LDK Ventures, Ms. Frazier worked on the Sacramento Railyards, a 200-acre infill development site. In the eight years working on the Railyards, Ms. Frazier has been heavily involved in economic development and infrastructure financing, leveraging tools such as tax increment financing, Community Facilities District bonds, fee credits, and grants.

Beyond her professional pursuits, Ms. Frazier has volunteered with the Sacramento chapter of the Urban Land Institute, where she established an annual scholarship for female students at Sacramento State pursuing careers in Real Estate and Land Use. She also volunteers for the American Cancer Society. In 2022 Ms. Frazier was recognized on the Sacramento Business Journal's 40 Under 40 list.

CDFA's Development Finance Certified Professional (DFCP) Program is an intense training course learning experience and is the industry's only comprehensive development finance professional certification program. The DFCP Program is designed to produce graduates with a comprehensive knowledge of development finance concepts, tools, and applicability as well as a deep understanding of the entire development finance spectrum. Graduates of the DFCP Program gain valuable knowledge and experience within the complex development finance industry and achieve a level of understanding unmatched by any other professional certification program.

The Council of Development Finance Agencies is a national association dedicated to the advancement of development finance concerns and interests. CDFA is comprised of the nation's leading and most knowledgeable members of the development finance community representing public, private, and non-profit entities alike.
